2019 HD Repair Forum Sponsorship Opportunities:

The HD Repair Forum brings together leaders from the entire heavy-duty/commercial collision repair industry for information, education, collaboration, and networking. The ultimate goal is to help businesses within the industry grow and prosper through awareness, information exchange, and the improvement and preparation for best practices in today's repair environment.

The 2019 HD Repair Forum will take place Tuesday & Wednesday, April 2-3, 2019 in Fort Worth, TX. This is the one event that brings together the entire heavy-duty collision repair industry! Sponsorships of this annual conference offer opportunity to reach repair facility owners and managers, insurance and appraisal company leaders, as well as connect with OE leaders of commercial vehicles. Network with new and current customers in a market that uses a lot of product, equipment, and services.
